

QIN Shuai

Université Libre de Bruxelles (Free University of Brussels)

Date of birth: 26th September, 1988

Mobile: 0465.29.95.72

E-mail: shuai.qin@ulb.ac.be; qinshuai_cn@hotmail.com

RESEARCH AREA:

The mobilization system in authoritarian regimes. (Funded by the CSC)

ACADEMIC INTERESTS:

Political Theory, Chinese Politics

Interdisciplinary Research in Politics, Sociology and Economics

Authoritarian Regime, Mobilization system, Social Structure and Economic system

EDUCATION:

Sep. 2013----Jul. 2015 University of International Relations (UIR), Beijing, China

Master of Law in Chinese and Foreign Political Institutions (2/18, GPA: 3.79/4)

- Research Assistant in program “Chinese Internet Political Practice in Contemporary”
- Consultant of National program “Participation Motive in Environmental Movement”
- Consultant of National program “An Analysis of Development Situation of Commercial Personalized Education – Taking Beijing "one to one" education service as an example”
- Joining other university-level research subjects: The NGOs Function in Development of the Elders Public Education, A Comparative Study on the Mainland and Hong Kong Social Service System et al.

Sep. 2007----Jul. 2011 University of International Relations (UIR), Beijing, China

Bachelor of Economics in International Economics and Trade

SCHOLARSHIP & HONORS:

- Chinese National Scholarship (Nationwide, 2015)
- The “Academic Superstar” (University-level, 2015)
- The Merit Graduate Student Scholarship (University-level, 2014)

Publications and Working Papers:

The Management Wisdom in < The Book of Lord Shang >, co-worker is my tutor

- Accepted by the <science of leadership> 2014, 25:22-23, Chinese core journal
- Abstract: In the history of China, although the legalism has been under severe criticism from Confucianism and liberalism for quite a long time, its contribution, which is in the area of strengthening the organizational performance and management mode, cannot be ignored in the method of leadership, the legalism still have vital significance to modern management

The Government Fail and Market Fail in the Area of Government Purchase, co-worker is my tutor

- Accepted by <Chinese Government Purchase>, 2014, 04:44-46, National-level journal
- Abstract: This paper analyzes the phenomenon of government failure and market failure in the government procurement, and it provides detailed description of four cases of a combination of government failure and market failure in the government purchase.

The Conception of the “Turkic corridor”

- Accepted by “The 7th international issues Forum of Beijing Foreign Studies University”, Excellent Paper, Nationwide
- Abstract: The Turkic corridor is a new concept. Its historical concept embraces the explanation of the Turks and Turkic people, as well as the Turkish culture which is based on the Turkic. Its geographical concept includes the Turkic countries in which the Turks are the main ethnic group, and the interpretation of the areas with strong identity of the Turkish culture. Its political concept contains the parse of political thought, which covers not only extreme nationalism, religionism and separatism, but also the Pan-Turkism.

The NGOs Function in Development of the Elders Public Education.

- Accepted by “The 11th Chinese Gerontology Forum”. Nationwide

The Problems of Pan-Islamization in the central aisa.

- Accepted by “Run Yuan Academic Forum”, Nationwide

Top Ten National Security Research Report, a member of the research team

- Accepted by Journal of International Security Studies, 2014,02:01-03

WORK EXPERIENCES AND OTHER ACTIVITIES:

- Sep 2011-Jun 2013 Investment counselor (full-time) , Beijing, China
In Beijing Hang Tang Wealth Investment Co., Ltd (The former ChongRong Trust Private Bank)
- Sep 2009-Oct 2009 Jury Guide (intern) in World Bank, Beijing, China
- Jun 2008-Jul 2008 Assistant (intern) in North Industries Group Corp, Shanxi, China

LANGUAGE & OTHER SKILLS:

- English, Chinese
- SAC(The securities practice qualification)